Sunday 27th September 2015

The Rotary Club of Heckmondwike & District invite you to join us on Sunday 27th September for a scenic run into the Derbyshire Peak District ending at Arkwright's Masson Mills, Matlock Bath.

Departure will be from The Star Inn, Roberttown and will include a full English breakfast and route details. On arrival at the Mills, car parking will be available and we will have the use of a dedicated room for prize presentation and our usual raffle draw at 2 pm. Entrants are free to explore the mills, museum, restaurant and shopping village and depart in their own time.

Many other attractions are in the area including The Heights of Abraham cable cars, Crompton village, Bakewell and Matlock.

We hope you will support us on this new venture by completing the entry form overleaf and submitting it along with the £20 fee.
